

St Benedict's Support Model

Person requiring support

Homestart

Support Provided

Safe secure accommodation with material support
Peer mentoring with actual lived experience.
Access to speciality service providers

Needs Addressed

Physiological
Stability and security to begin recovery from trauma
Support systems to tackle isolation

Helpstart

Support Provided

Case manager to identify issues and source specialty service providers
Social network supports to tackle isolation and increase connection to community.
Group and individual counselling with qualified, experienced counsellor.

Needs Addressed

Safety, community belonging and independent living needs

Workstart

Support Provided

Counsellor to assist in aspects of employment mentoring, training and job locating.

Participate in employment, traineeship and apprenticeship programs to upskill

Needs Addressed

Belonging and esteem needs

Increased social connections and supports for tackling isolation